August 22, 2022

GREENVILLE, S.C., Aug. 22, 2022 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- United Community Banks, Inc. announced today that its Board of Directors has appointed George Bell as Director.

Bell is an experienced information technology executive and has more than 25 years of experience in financial services, previously working for Truist, BB&T, and Bank of America. In his most recent role, he served as the Executive Vice President - Software Engineering Group Head, Business Management Manager of Truist where he led a cross-functional team and provided technical leadership for human resources, legal, and business management function. He brings a wealth of knowledge in improving the quality of products and services to enhance customer services which will be invaluable to United.

"George embodies a skillset identified by our Board as essential to the growth of our company and we are honored to welcome him aboard," said Lynn Harton, Chairman and CEO of United Community Bank. "I had the honor of working with George early in our careers and have always been impressed with his intelligence and understanding of the industry. His impeccable track record of leveraging leading technology and enabling customer-centric innovation will be particularly helpful to our team as our business continues to grow across some of the fastest-growing markets in the Southeast."

"George brings us a fresh, experienced perspective to our board," added Thomas A. Richlovsky, Lead Director of the Board. "As we continue to grow, we strive to attract and recruit board talent to assure effective ongoing oversight of the Bank's strategy. George's extensive experience in financial services with an emphasis on customer information management is an excellent complement to our existing capabilities."

A native of New Bern, N.C., Bell received his master's degree in business administration from East Carolina University and was an honors graduate of Barton College with a degree in mathematics. He lives in Charlotte, N.C. with his wife, Faye, and his daughter is entering her senior year at Fordham University in the fall.

"It is an honor to join the Board of Directors for United Community Bank. I look forward to upholding the integrity and confidence that the customers place with United and working alongside the talented leadership team at the bank," added Bell.
