LYNN HARTON NAMED CEO OF UNITED COMMUNITY BANK

*Jimmy Tallent to Remain
Chairman and CEO of Holding Company*

BLAIRSVILLE, Ga., August 17, 2017 -- The board of directors of United Community Banks, Inc. (NASDAQ: UCBI) today announced that Lynn Harton has been named chief executive officer of United Community Bank (the "Bank"), UCBI's banking subsidiary. Mr. Harton will continue to serve as president of UCBI and the Bank, as well as a member of their respective boards. Jimmy C. Tallent will continue to serve as chairman and chief executive officer of UCBI, as well as chairman of the Bank.

"Lynn has served as our president and chief operating officer for the past five years and has been the driver for much of the growth and expansion of our company," said Tallent. "He has been instrumental in expanding our geographic footprint, in developing and growing our Commercial Banking Solutions group, and building our regional headquarters and operations in Greenville, S.C. Lynn has more than 30 years of experience in the banking industry and an exceptional track record of leadership. The board and I are confident that he will continue to strengthen the Bank as chief executive officer and president."

"United has a bright future, and I am deeply appreciative of the confidence Jimmy and the board have placed in me," said Harton. "We have an outstanding team in place, and we look forward to continuing to execute the Bank's strategy of providing exceptional customer service to our growing Southeastern markets."

Prior to joining United in 2012, Harton was the executive vice president for commercial banking for TD Bank. Prior to TD Bank, Harton was chief executive officer at The South Financial Group, which was sold to TD Bank. He served as the chief credit officer for both Regions Financial Corporation and Union Planters Corporation and spent the first twenty years of his career at BB&T in several senior executive positions.

Harton is active on several community boards including the Greenville County Museum of Art, the Peace Center, and Artisphere. He is a director of the Risk Management Association, a national association for the financial services industry, and serves on its Community Bank Council. Harton has served on several additional financial boards and committees throughout his career, including the Palmetto Business Forum, RMA National Credit Risk Council, CBA National Small Business Banking Committee, and the Equifax Small Business Financial Exchange. He earned his bachelor's degree from Wake Forest University and has participated in various university executive programs.
