If the merger is consummated, you will receive, for each share of Peoples common stock that you own, 0.4473684 shares of United common stock. Based upon 801,000 shares of Peoples common stock outstanding, United expects to issue 358,342 shares of its common stock in connection with the merger, or approximately 3% of the United common stock that will be outstanding after the merger.

This proxy statement/prospectus contains information regarding the merger agreement, the proposed merger, and the two companies participating in the merger. We encourage you to read this entire document carefully, including the discussion under the heading "Risk Factors Relating to the Merger" beginning on page 9. To obtain delivery of such business and financial information before the special meeting, your request must be received no later than October 30, 2001.

Consummation of the merger requires that the shareholders of Peoples approve the merger agreement. Whether or not you plan to attend the special meeting of shareholders of Peoples, please take the time to complete and return your enclosed proxy card. If you do not return your proxy card, the effect will be a vote against the proposed merger. If you sign, date, and mail your proxy card without indicating how you want to vote, your proxy will be counted as a vote in favor of the proposed merger. If your shares are held by a broker in "street name," and you wish to vote your shares, you must instruct your broker regarding the manner in which you wish to vote.

After careful consideration, the board of directors of Peoples has determined that the merger is in the best interests of its shareholders, and unanimously recommends voting FOR the merger. The board of directors of Peoples strongly supports this strategic combination between United and Peoples and appreciates your prompt attention to this very important matter.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS ABOUT THE MERGER

Q: What will I receive in the merger?

A: You will receive, for each share of Peoples common stock that you own at the time of the effective date of the merger, 0.4473684 shares of United common stock. United will not issue fractional shares in the merger. Instead, you will receive a cash payment, without interest, for the value of any fraction of a share of United common stock that you would otherwise be entitled to receive based upon $38.00 a share of United common stock. For example: If you own 100 shares of Peoples common stock, in the merger you would receive 44 shares of United common stock and a check for $28 (.73684 x $38.00).

Q: What am I being asked to approve?

A: You are being asked to approve the Agreement and Plan of Reorganization by and between Peoples and United, by which Peoples will be merged with and into United. Approval of the merger agreement requires the affirmative vote of more than 50% of the outstanding shares of Peoples common stock. The Peoples board of directors has unanimously approved and adopted the Agreement and Plan of Reorganization and recommends voting FOR approval of this merger agreement.

Q: What should I do now?

A: Just indicate on your proxy card how you want to vote, and sign and mail it in the enclosed envelope as soon as possible so that your shares will be represented at the meeting. If you sign and send in a proxy card but do not indicate how you want to vote, your proxy will be voted in favor of the proposal to approve and adopt the merger agreement. A special shareholders meeting will take place at 10:00 a.m. on November 6, 2001 at 119 Maple Street, Carrollton, Georgia to vote upon the proposal.

You may attend the meeting and vote your shares in person, rather than voting by proxy. In addition, you may withdraw your proxy up to and including the day of the special shareholders meeting by notifying Peoples' corporate secretary prior to the meeting, in writing, or by submitting an executed, later-dated proxy to: Elaine B. Lovvorn, Corporate Secretary, Peoples Bancorp, Inc., 119 Maple Street, Carrollton, Georgia 30117

Q: What risks should I consider?

A: We encourage you to read this entire document carefully. In particular, you should carefully consider the "Risk Factors Relating to the Merger" beginning on page 9. You should also review the factors considered by each company's board of directors discussed in "Details of the Proposed Merger ' Background of and Reasons for the Merger" beginning on page 13.

Q: When is the merger expected to be completed?

A: We plan to complete the merger during the fourth quarter of 2001.

Q: What are the tax consequences of the merger to me?

A: We expect that the exchange of shares by Peoples shareholders generally will be tax-free to Peoples shareholders for federal income tax purposes. Peoples shareholders will, however, have to pay taxes on cash received for fractional shares. To review the tax consequences to Peoples shareholders in greater detail, see "Details of the Proposed Merger ' Material Federal Income Tax Consequences of the Merger and Opinion of Tax Counsel" beginning on page 23.

Your tax consequences will depend on your personal situation. You should consult your tax adviser for a full understanding of the tax consequences of the merger to you.

Q: If my shares are held in "street name" by my broker, will my broker vote my shares for me?

A: Your broker will vote your shares of common stock only if you provide instructions on how to vote. Following the directions your broker provides, you should instruct your broker how to vote your shares. If you do not provide instructions to your broker, your shares will not be voted, and this will have the effect of a vote against the merger agreement.

Q: Should I send in my stock certificates now?

A: No. After the merger is completed, you will receive written instructions from SunTrust Bank, exchange agent for United, for exchanging your Peoples common stock certificates for United common stock certificates.

Q: Who should I call with questions about the merger?

A: You should call Elaine Lovvorn at (770) 838-9608.

SUMMARY OF TERMS OF THE MERGER

This summary highlights selected information from this proxy statement/prospectus regarding the proposed merger. This summary may not contain all of the information that is important to you as you consider the proposed merger and related matters. For a more complete description of the terms of the proposed merger, you should carefully read the entire proxy statement/prospectus, and the related documents to which it refers. The Agreement and Plan of Reorganization, which is the legal document that governs the proposed merger, is incorporated by reference into this document, and is attached as Appendix A.

In addition, the sections entitled "Where You Can Find More Information," on page 29, and "Incorporation of Certain Documents By Reference," on page 30, contain references to additional sources of information about United and Peoples.

- The Companies (see pages 25 and 28)

United Community Banks, Inc.

63 Highway 515
Blairsville, Georgia 30512
(706) 745-2151

United is a multi-bank holding company based in Blairsville, Georgia. All of United's activities are conducted through its wholly-owned subsidiaries: United Community Bank, a full service commercial bank with its main office in Blairsville, Georgia; Towns County Bank, a full service commercial bank with its main office in Hiawassee, Georgia; Peoples Bank of Fannin County, a full service commercial bank with its main office in Blue Ridge, Georgia; White County Bank, a full service commercial bank with its main office in Cleveland, Georgia; First Clayton Bank & Trust, a full service commercial bank with its main office in Clayton, Georgia; Independent Bank & Trust Company, a full service commercial bank with its main office in Powder Springs, Georgia; Dawson County Bank, a full service commercial bank with its main office in Dawsonville, Georgia; and Carolina Community Bank, a full service commercial bank with its main office in Murphy, North Carolina.

Each of these subsidiaries of United provide customary types of banking services, such as checking accounts, savings accounts, and time deposits. They also engage in commercial and consumer lending, make secured and unsecured loans, and provide other financial services.

United also owns an insurance agency, United Agencies, Inc., and a consulting firm for the financial services industry, Brintech, Inc.

At June 30, 2001, United had total consolidated assets of approximately $2.6 billion, total consolidated loans of approximately $1.9 billion, total consolidated deposits of approximately $2.0 billion, and total consolidated shareholders' equity of approximately $174 million.

Peoples Bancorp, Inc.

119 Maple Street
Carrollton, Georgia 30117
(770) 838-9608

Peoples is a one-bank holding company based in Carrollton, Georgia. Peoples is the parent company of Peoples Bank of West Georgia, a full service commercial bank with its main office in Carrollton, Georgia. Peoples Bank provides customary types of banking services such as checking accounts, savings accounts, and time deposits. It also engages in commercial and consumer lending, makes secured and unsecured loans, and provides other financial services.

At June 30, 2001, Peoples had total consolidated assets of approximately $76.2 million, total consolidated loans of approximately $50.7 million, total consolidated deposits of approximately $60.2 million, and total consolidated shareholders' equity of approximately $8.7 million.

- The Terms of the Merger (see page 14)

If the merger is approved, Peoples will be merged with and into United, with United being the surviving company. Upon consummation of the merger, Peoples Bank will become a subsidiary of United, and its name will be changed to United Community Bank West Georgia. As a result of the merger, you will receive, for each share of Peoples common stock you own on the effective date of the merger, 0.4473684 shares of United common stock. You will also receive a cash payment for any fractional shares in an amount equal to the fraction multiplied by $38.00.

- The Reasons Management of Both Companies Support the Merger (see page 13)

The boards of directors of Peoples and United support the merger and believe that it is in the best interests of both companies, and their respective shareholders. The board of directors of Peoples believes the merger will permit Peoples shareholders to have an equity interest in a resulting financial institution that has greater financial resources and a larger shareholder base, which may increase liquidity and marketability of the equity investment of Peoples shareholders. The board of directors of United believes that Peoples provides United with an expansion opportunity into an attractive new market area. Both boards of directors also believe that the terms of the merger are fair and equitable. In addition, both boards of directors believe that following the merger, the size of the combined organization is sufficiently large to take advantage over time of significant economies of scale, but is still small enough to maintain the competitive advantages of community-oriented banks.

- Shareholders' Meeting (see page 16)

The special meeting of shareholders of Peoples will be held on November 6, 2001, at 10:00 a.m., at the offices of Peoples Bank, at 119 Maple Street, Carrollton, Georgia, for the purpose of voting on approval of the merger agreement.

- Record Date (see page 16)

You are entitled to vote at the shareholders' meeting if you owned shares of Peoples common stock on September 18, 2001.

- Vote Required (see page 16)

Approval by holders of a majority of the Peoples common stock outstanding on September 18, 2001, is required to approve the merger agreement.

As of September 18, 2001, 800,000 shares of Peoples common stock were issued and outstanding. There are 377,636 shares, or 47%, of Peoples common stock held by its directors, executive officers, and their affiliates, all of which are entitled to vote on this merger. All of the directors and executive officers of Peoples have agreed to vote their shares in favor of the merger. Therefore, approval of the merger agreement is virtually assured.

- Conditions, Termination, and Effective Date (see page 14)

The merger will not occur unless certain conditions are met, and United or Peoples can terminate the merger agreement if specified events occur or fail to occur. The merger must be approved by the Peoples shareholders, the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System, and the Department of Banking and Finance of the State of Georgia. The approval of the the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System and the Georgia Department of Banking and Finance has been received.

The closing of the merger will occur after the merger agreement is approved by Peoples shareholders and after the articles of merger are filed as required under Georgia law.

- Rights of Dissenting Shareholders (see page 21)

You are entitled to dissent from the merger and to demand payment of the "fair value" of your Peoples common stock in cash if you follow certain statutory provisions regarding the rights of dissenting shareholders under Article 13 of the Georgia Business Corporation Code.

- Federal Income Tax Consequences (see page 23)

Peoples has received an opinion from Kilpatrick Stockton LLP stating that, assuming the merger is completed as currently anticipated, neither Peoples nor the shareholders of Peoples who receive shares of United common stock in connection with the merger will recognize any gain or loss for federal income tax purposes. Neither United nor Peoples has requested a ruling to that effect from the Internal Revenue Service. Any cash you receive as payment for any fractional interests or as payment after exercising your right to dissent will be treated as amounts distributed in redemption of your Peoples common stock, and that amount will be taxable under the Internal Revenue Code as either ordinary income or capital gain or loss, depending upon your particular circumstances.

- Accounting Treatment (see page 21)

United intends to account for the merger as a purchase for financial reporting and accounting purposes.

- Markets for Capital Stock

United's common stock is not traded on an established public market. The following table sets forth certain information regarding trades of United common stock known by United's management for the indicated periods:

Year	Number of Trades	Aggregate Shares	Size of Trades		Price of Trades
			Smallest	Largest	Lowest	Highest
2001 (through August 31, 2001)	315	287,922	1 share	10,000 shares	$29.00	$40.00
2000	452	246,000	1 share	10,000 shares	32.00	50.00
1999	883	602,500	1 share	10,000 shares	35.00	55.00

On July 6, 2001, the most recent date with a stock trade prior to the public announcement of the merger, there was one sale of United common stock known to United's management, aggregating 982 shares at a price of $35.00 per share.

Peoples' common stock is not traded on an established public trading market. The following table sets forth certain information regarding trades of Peoples common stock known by Peoples' management for the indicated periods:

Year	Number of Trades	Aggregate Shares	Size of Trades		Price of Trades
			Smallest	Largest	Lowest	Highest
2001 (through August 31, 2001)	6	1,250	100 shares	375 shares	$11.00	$14.00
2000	14	21,385	100 shares	3,000 shares	10.50	14.00
1999	13	19,181	100 shares	8,180 shares	10.00	11.00

The market value of each company's common stock as of October 2, 2001 was $37.00 per share for United and $12.50 per share for Peoples.

- Dividends (see page 20)

United declared a cash dividend of $.10 per share in the first quarter of 2001, a cash dividend of $.10 per share in the second quarter of 2001, and paid aggregate cash dividends of $.30 per share in 2000, $.20 per share in 1999, and $.15 per share in 1998. United intends to continue paying cash dividends, but the amount and frequency of cash dividends, if any, will be determined by United's board of directors after consideration of earnings, capital requirements, and the financial condition of United, and will depend on cash dividends paid to it by its subsidiary banks. The ability of those subsidiaries to pay dividends to United is restricted by certain regulatory requirements.

Peoples has paid no dividends since its incorporation in 1996. The merger agreement places restrictions on Peoples' ability to pay dividends prior to the closing of the transaction.

- There are Some Differences in Shareholders' Rights Between Peoples and United (see page 18)

If you own shares of Peoples common stock, following the merger, your rights as shareholders will no longer be governed by Peoples' articles of incorporation and bylaws. Instead, you will automatically become United shareholders, and your rights as United shareholders will be governed by United's articles of incorporation and bylaws. Your rights as a Peoples shareholder and your rights as a United shareholder are different in certain ways.

Specifically, Peoples' articles of incorporation and bylaws divide the members of its board of directors into three different classes, with the classes serving staggered three-year terms. United's articles of incorporation and bylaws do not divide the members of its board of directors into classes. Instead, all members of United's board of directors serve one-year terms. Additionally, if not previously approved by two-thirds of Peoples' board of directors, the articles of incorporation and bylaws of Peoples require a higher percentage of affirmative votes to remove a director, enter into a business combination, or amend the articles of incorporation or bylaws of Peoples, than do the articles of incorporation and bylaws of United. Finally, the articles of incorporation of Peoples sets forth different requirements with respect to the ability of shareholders to call special meetings, or act without a meeting, than do the bylaws of United.

- Interests of Directors and Officers of Peoples in the Merger (see page 18)

Some of the directors and officers of Peoples have interests in the merger in addition to their interests as shareholders generally, including the following:

- In connection with the merger agreement, United has agreed to provide generally to officers and employees of Peoples who continue employment with United or its subsidiaries employee benefits under employee benefit plans, on terms and conditions substantially similar to those currently provided to similarly situated United officers and employees.
- As a condition to the closing of the merger, Peoples and Timothy I. Warren, president of Peoples and president and chief executive officer of Peoples Bank, have agreed to terminate Mr. Warren's employment agreement with Peoples Bank prior to the closing of the merger. In connection with the termination of Mr. Warren's employment agreement, Mr. Warren will receive a payment of $432,715 from Peoples Bank.
- Upon completion of the merger, Mr. Warren will continue as president and chief executive officer of Peoples Bank, and United and Mr. Warren will enter into a change of control agreement which provides for compensation to Mr. Warren if he is terminated in connection with a change of control of United.
- Following the merger, United will generally indemnify and provide liability insurance to the present directors and officers of Peoples, subject to certain exceptions.

RISK FACTORS RELATING TO THE MERGER

The following paragraphs describe what we believe is the material risk associated with the proposed merger and the material risk associated with an equity investment in United common stock as a result of the merger. You should carefully consider the risk described below before voting on the merger agreement.

United common stock is not traded on any established public market, and a liquid trading market for United common stock may not develop.

United common stock is not traded on any established public market. We cannot say with any certainty whether an active or liquid trading market for United common stock will develop. Because of this, it may be difficult for you to sell any shares of United common stock, or if you are able to sell shares, it may be difficult to sell a large number of shares of United common stock for the same price at which you may be able to sell a smaller number of shares.

COMPARATIVE SHARE DATA REGARDING UNITED AND PEOPLES

We have summarized below the per share reported results information for United and Peoples on a historical, pro forma combined and equivalent basis. You should read this information in conjunction with the historical financial statements (and related notes) contained in the annual and quarterly reports and other documents we have filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission. The pro forma combined information gives effect to the merger accounted for as a purchase, assuming that 0.4473684 of a share of United common stock is issued for each outstanding share of Peoples common stock. Pro forma equivalent of one Peoples common share amounts are calculated by multiplying the pro forma combined basic and diluted earnings per share, United historical per share dividend and the pro forma combined shareholders' equity by an assumed exchange ratio of 0.4473684 of a share of United common stock so that the per share amounts equate to the respective values for one share of Peoples common stock. You should not rely on the pro forma information as being indicative of the historical results that we would have had if we had been combined or the future results that we will experience after the merger, nor should you rely on the six-month information as being indicative of results expected for the entire year or for any future interim period. Management believes that the final allocation of purchase price could differ materially from the estimated allocation used for pro forma purposes.

DETAILS OF THE PROPOSED MERGER

Background of and Reasons for the Merger

During the spring and summer of 2001, the board of directors of Peoples considered a number of prospective strategic transactions for Peoples to pursue. Because of the compatibility in philosophy, the board was interested in pursuing the possibility of a merger with United. In May 2001, Timothy Warren and Phillip Kauffman, the chief executive officer and chairman of the board of Peoples, respectively, approached Jimmy Tallent, president and chief executive officer of United, to determine if there might be some interest in considering a merger of the institutions.

On June 26, 2001, Mr. Tallent made a presentation concerning United's business and operations at a special called meeting of the Peoples board of directors. The valuation and the terms and conditions of United's proposal were discussed. At this meeting, the board authorized Mr. Warren to negotiate the Agreement with United. The Agreement was approved by the board on July 10, 2001.

Without assigning any relative or specific weights to the factors, the board of directors of Peoples considered the following material:

- the value of the consideration to be received by Peoples shareholders relative to the book value and earnings per share of Peoples common stock;
- certain information concerning the financial condition, results of operations and business prospectus of United;
- the financial terms of recent business combinations in the financial services industry and a comparison of the multiples of selected combinations with the terms of the proposed transaction with United;
- the alternatives to the merger, including remaining an independent institution;
- the competition and regulatory environment for financial institutions generally; and
- the fact that the merger will enable Peoples shareholders to exchange their shares of Peoples common stock, in a tax-free transaction, for shares of common stock of a larger company, the stock of which is more widely held and more liquid than that of Peoples.

The board of directors of Peoples believes the merger is in the best interest of its shareholders because the merger will permit them to exchange their ownership in Peoples for an equity interest in United, which has greater financial resources than Peoples. The board of directors of Peoples also believes that the terms of the merger, including the basis of exchange, 0.4473684 shares of United common stock for each share of Peoples common stock, which was determined through arms-length negotiations between United and Peoples, are fair and equitable and take into account the relative earning power of United and Peoples, historic and anticipated operations, the economies of scale to be achieved through the merger, the trading prices of the stocks of the respective companies, and other pertinent factors.

The board of directors of Peoples believes that in the current regulatory and competitive environment, larger organizations with greater economies of scale, including the ability to spread largely fixed costs over a larger gross income base and the ability to attract management talent able to compete in a more sophisticated financial services environment, will be more successful than smaller organizations. Management of United and Peoples believes that there is a future for community banks in the banking industry, but that community banks will be required to achieve a critical size to maintain above-average economic performance.

The Merger Agreement

The material features of the merger agreement are summarized below:

Effective Date

The merger agreement provides that the merger will be effective on the date and at the time the Certificate of Merger reflecting the proposed merger becomes effective with the Secretary of State of the State of Georgia. The merger also is subject to approval by the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System and the Department of Banking and Finance of the State of Georgia. The Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System and the Department of Banking and Finance of the State of Georgia have already approved the merger. Management of United and Peoples anticipate that the merger will become effective during the fourth quarter of 2001.

Terms of the Merger

Peoples shareholders will receive, for each share of Peoples common stock they own on the effective date of the merger, 0.4473684 shares of United common stock. United shareholders will continue to hold their existing shares of United common stock. If, prior to the closing, the outstanding shares of United common stock or Peoples common stock are increased through a stock dividend, stock split, reverse stock split, subdivision, recapitalization, or reclassification of shares, or are combined into a lesser number of shares by reclassification, recapitalization, or reduction of capital, the number of shares of United common stock to be delivered pursuant to the merger in exchange for a share of Peoples common stock will be proportionately adjusted.

United will not issue fractional shares of United common stock in connection with the merger, and an outstanding fractional share interest will not entitle the owner thereof to vote, receive dividends, or exercise any rights as a shareholder of United with respect to that fractional interest. Instead of issuing any fractional shares of United common stock to a Peoples shareholder, United will pay in cash an amount (computed to the nearest cent) equal to that fraction multiplied by $38.00 per share.

If the merger is completed, shareholders of Peoples will become shareholders of United, and Peoples will be merged with and into United. Following the merger, the articles of incorporation, bylaws, corporate identity, and existence of United will not be changed, and Peoples will cease to exist as a separate entity.

Conversion of Stock Options

If the merger is completed, each existing option to purchase Peoples common stock will be converted into the right to purchase shares of United common stock. The number of shares underlying each such option after the merger will be determined by multiplying such number immediately prior to the merger by 0.4473684, and the exercise price of each such option after the merger will be determined by dividing such amount immediately prior to the merger by 0.4473684.

Registration of United Common Stock

United has agreed, prior to the closing of the merger, to register the shares of United common stock to be exchanged for shares of Peoples common stock with the Securities and Exchange Commission, and to use its reasonable best efforts to maintain the effectiveness of such registration through the date of closing of the merger. Such registration will not cover resales of United common stock by any former holders of Peoples common stock, and United is under no obligation to maintain the effectiveness of such registration, or to prepare and file any post-effective amendments to such registration, after the date of closing of the merger.

Termination and Conditions of Closing

The merger agreement may be terminated and the merger abandoned at any time either before or after approval of the merger agreement by the shareholders of Peoples, but not later than the effective date of the merger:

- by either party, if a material adverse change in the financial condition or business of the other party has occurred, which change would reasonably be expected to have a material adverse effect on the market price of such party's common stock; or if material loss or damage to the other party's properties or assets has occurred, which change, loss or damage materially affects or impairs such party's ability to conduct its business;
- by either party, if the other party has not substantially complied with, or substantially performed, the terms, covenants or conditions of the merger agreement, and such non-compliance has not otherwise been waived;
- by either party, if such party learns of any fact or conditions not disclosed by the other party in the merger agreement, the other party's disclosure memorandum or audited financial statements, which fact or conditions were required to be disclosed, and which has a material adverse effect on the other party;
- by either party, if any action, suit or proceeding is instituted or threatened against either party seeking to restrain, prohibit or obtain substantial damages in respect of the merger agreement or the consummation of the merger, which, in the good faith opinion of the terminating party makes consummation of the merger inadvisable;
- by either party, if the merger has not occurred on or before December 31, 2001;
- by United, if the holders of more than 5% of the outstanding shares of Peoples common stock elect to exercise statutory dissenters' rights;
- by either party, if the Peoples shareholders do not approve the merger agreement; or
- by United, if it learns of any potential liability arising from noncompliance with any federal, state or local environmental law by Peoples, or any potential liability of Peoples arising from any environmental condition of the properties or assets of Peoples, including any properties or assets in which Peoples holds a security interest.

The following are some of the required conditions of closing:

- the accuracy of the representations and warranties of all parties contained in the merger agreement and related documents as of the date when made and the effective date;
- the performance of all agreements and conditions required by the merger agreement;
- the delivery of officers' certificates, resolutions, and legal opinions to Peoples and United;
- approval of the merger by the Peoples shareholders;

- authorizations of governmental authorities, and the expiration of any regulatory waiting periods;
- effectiveness of the registration statement of United relating to the shares of United common stock to be issued to Peoples shareholders in the merger, of which this document forms a part;
- the receipt by United of a letter from Mauldin & Jenkins, LLC regarding the accuracy of the Peoples financial statements;
- the issuance of a certificate of merger by the Secretary of State of Georgia; and
- the receipt by United of evidence of the termination of the employment agreement, dated as of September 14, 1998, between Peoples and Timothy I. Warren;
- the receipt by United of a change of control agreement executed by Timothy I. Warren, in form reasonably satisfactory to United and Mr. Warren;
- the receipt by Peoples of the opinion of Kilpatrick Stockton LLP as to the tax consequences of the merger to Peoples shareholders;

Surrender of Certificates

Shortly after the effective date of the merger, each holder of Peoples common stock (as of that date) will be required to deliver his or her shares of Peoples common stock to United's exchange agent, SunTrust Bank. After delivering his, her, or its shares of Peoples common stock, the holder will receive a stock certificate for the number of shares of United common stock that the holder is entitled to receive under the merger agreement, and a cash payment for any fractional interest in United common stock. Until a holder delivers his or her shares of Peoples common stock to SunTrust Bank, he or she will not receive payment of any dividends or other distributions on shares of United common stock into which his, her, or its shares of Peoples common stock have been converted, and will not receive any notices sent by United to its shareholders with respect to, or to vote, those shares. After delivering the shares to SunTrust Bank, the holder will then be entitled to receive any dividends or other distributions, without interest, which become payable after the merger but prior to the holder's delivery of the certificates to SunTrust Bank.

Required Shareholder Approval

The holders of a majority of the outstanding shares of Peoples common stock entitled to vote at the special meeting must approve the merger agreement for the merger to be completed. Abstentions from voting and broker non-votes will be included in determining whether a quorum is present and will have the effect of a vote against the merger agreement.

September 18, 2001, the record date for determining the shareholders entitled to notice of, and to vote at, the special meeting, the outstanding voting securities of Peoples consisted of 800,000 shares of Peoples common stock, with each registered holder of Peoples common stock being entitled to one vote per share. All of the directors and executive officers of Peoples have entered into agreements with United to vote their shares of Peoples common stock in favor of the merger. There are 377,636 shares of Peoples common stock held or controlled by Peoples' directors, executive officers, and their affiliates, which is approximately 47% of the outstanding shares of Peoples common stock. Therefore, approval of the merger agreement is virtually assured.

Expenses

All expenses incurred by United in connection with the merger agreement, including all fees and expenses of its agents, representatives, counsel and accountants and the fees and expenses related to filing this proxy statement/prospectus and all regulatory applications with state and federal authorities shall be paid by United. All expenses incurred by Peoples in connection with the merger agreement, including all fees and expenses of its agents, representatives, counsel and accountants for Peoples and the cost of reproducing and mailing this proxy statement/prospectus shall be paid by Peoples.

Conduct of Business of Peoples Pending Closing

The merger agreement provides that, pending consummation of the merger, Peoples will, except with the written consent of United:

- operate its business in the ordinary course, without the creation of any indebtedness for borrowed money;
- maintain its properties and assets in good operating condition, ordinary wear and tear excepted;
- maintain and keep in full force and effect all required insurance;
- preserve its capital structure and make no change in its authorized or issued capital stock or other securities, and grant no right or option to purchase or otherwise acquire any of its capital stock or securities;
- declare or make no dividend, distribution or payment in respect of its common stock;
- not, directly or indirectly, redeem, purchase or otherwise acquire any shares of its capital stock;
- make no amendment to its articles of incorporation or bylaws, and preserve its corporate existence and powers;
- acquire no business, corporation, partnership, association or other entity or division thereof, and no assets which are material, in the aggregate, to it;
- not sell, mortgage, lease, buy or otherwise acquire, transfer or dispose of any real property or interest therein, or any tangible or intangible asset (other than in the ordinary course of business);
- make no change in its banking and safe deposit arrangements;
- enter into no material contracts, other than renewals of existing contracts or contracts for the substitution of vendors in existing contracts;
- maintain all books and records in the usual, regular and ordinary course;
- file all reports required to be filed with any regulatory or governmental agencies, and deliver copies of such reports to United promptly after they are filed; and
- make no severance or termination payment to any director, officer or other employee, and adopt no severance plan, other than any payment or series of payments to be made to

Timothy I. Warren in connection with the termination of his employment agreement with Peoples, and so long as such payment or series of payments to Mr. Warren does not constitute an "excess parachute payment," as defined under Section 280G(b)(1) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended.

In addition, the merger agreement provides that Peoples will promptly advise United, orally and in writing, of any change or event having, or which the Peoples management believes could have, a material adverse effect on the assets, liabilities, business, operations or financial condition of Peoples.

Interest of Management in the Transaction

Except as set forth below, no director or officer of Peoples, or any of their associates, has any direct or indirect material interest in the merger, except that those persons may own shares of Peoples common stock which will be converted in the merger into United common stock. United and Peoples do not anticipate that the merger will result in any material change in compensation to employees of Peoples.

As a condition to the closing of the merger, Peoples, Peoples Bank and Timothy I. Warren, the president of Peoples and the president and chief executive officer of Peoples Bank, have agreed to terminate Mr. Warren's employment agreement, dated as of September 14, 1998, pursuant to which Mr. Warren had agreed to forgo annual bonuses in return for, at his option, a substantial payment in the event of a change in control, prior to the closing of the merger. In connection with the termination of Mr. Warren's employment agreement, Mr. Warren will receive a payment of $432,715 from Peoples Bank.

Upon completion of the merger, United will employ Mr. Warren as president and chief executive officer of Peoples Bank, which will be a subsidiary of United, and will enter into a change of control agreement with Mr. Warren. If Mr. Warren is terminated due to a change of control of United, as defined in the agreement, he may receive, among other things, a lump sum cash payment equal to twice his total compensation for the calendar year immediately preceding his termination.

United has agreed in the merger agreement to provide employee benefits to Peoples employees that are substantially similar to those currently provided by United to its employees and to indemnify each person entitled to indemnification by Peoples for liabilities arising from acts or omissions arising prior to the effective date of the merger.

There are 377,636 shares, or 47%, of Peoples common stock held by its directors, executive officers, and their affiliates, all of which are entitled to vote on this merger. All of the directors and executive officers of Peoples have agreed to vote their shares in favor of the merger. Accordingly, approval of the merger agreement is virtually assured.

Comparison of the Rights of Peoples and United Shareholders

Upon completion of the merger, holders of Peoples common stock on the effective date of the merger, other than dissenting shareholders, will become shareholders of United. Although United and Peoples are both organized under the laws of Georgia, differences arise when comparing provisions of each corporation's respective articles of incorporation and bylaws. The following is a comparison between various provisions of United's and Peoples' articles of incorporation and bylaws.

Composition of Board of Directors

The articles of incorporation and bylaws of Peoples provide that its board of directors will consist of at least six, but not more than twenty members, and the board of directors has set the number of Peoples directors at twelve. The bylaws of Peoples also provide that its board of directors will be divided into three classes. The bylaws further provide that the members of each class will be elected for a term of three years and until their successors are elected and qualified, with one class of directors being elected by ballot annually.

The bylaws of United provide that its board of directors will consist of at least eight, but not more than fourteen, members, and the bylaws do not divide the members of United's board of directors into classes. All members of the United board of directors are elected annually, and serve for one-year terms and until their successors are elected and qualified.

Removal of Directors

The articles of incorporation and bylaws of Peoples provide that directors may be removed by the shareholders only for "cause," as that term is defined in the articles of incorporation and bylaws, and only upon:

- the affirmative vote of at least 75% of the outstanding shares of capital stock of Peoples; or
- the affirmative vote of a majority of the outstanding shares of capital stock of Peoples if such removal is first approved by a resolution adopted by at least two-thirds of the directors of Peoples then in office.

The articles of incorporation of United provide that directors may be removed only for cause and only upon the affirmative vote of the holders of two-thirds of the issued and outstanding shares entitled to vote on the removal.

Approval of Certain Business Transactions

The articles of incorporation of Peoples provide that in order to effect a merger or consolidation of Peoples with another entity, or any sale, transfer or disposition of all or substantially all of the assets of Peoples, or to adopt a plan or proposal for the liquidation or dissolution of Peoples, such business transaction must be approved by:

- the affirmative vote of the holders of at least 80% of the outstanding shares of capital stock of Peoples, voting together as a single class; or
- the affirmative vote of a majority of the outstanding shares of capital stock of Peoples, voting together as a single class, if such business transaction was previously approved by a resolution adopted by at least two-thirds of the directors of Peoples then in office.

The articles of incorporation of United provide that in order to effect a "business combination," as such term is defined in the articles of incorporation, that has not previously been approved by a resolution adopted by at least three-fourths of the directors then in office, the business combination must, in addition to any affirmative vote required by law, and subject to the provisions of any series of preferred stock then outstanding, be approved by:

- the affirmative vote of the holders of at least 75% of the outstanding shares of common stock of United; and
- the separate affirmative vote of at least 75% of the outstanding shares of common stock, excluding those shares held by any "interested shareholder," as that term is defined in the articles of incorporation.

Amendments to Articles of Incorporation and Bylaws

The articles of incorporation of Peoples provide that Peoples' bylaws may be altered, amended or repealed by a resolution adopted by at least two-thirds of the directors then in office, but the alteration, amendment or repeal of the Peoples' bylaws by the Peoples shareholders requires the affirmative vote of the holders of at least 80% of the outstanding shares of capital stock, voting as a single class. In addition, the alteration, amendment or repeal of certain sections of the Peoples articles of incorporation requires:

- the affirmative vote of holders of at least 80% of the outstanding shares of capital stock of Peoples, voting as a single class; or
- the affirmative vote of holders of a majority of the outstanding shares of capital stock of Peoples, provided that the alteration, amendment or repeal has been approved previously by resolution adopted by at least two-thirds of the directors then in office.

The articles of incorporation of United provide that such articles, or the bylaws of United, may be amended only by the affirmative vote of holders of two-thirds of the shares of United capital stock then issued and outstanding and entitled to vote.

Shareholders' Meetings and Action Without a Meeting

The articles of incorporation of Peoples require written request from the holders of at least 75% of the outstanding shares of capital stock of Peoples, together as a single class, in order for the shareholders to call a special meeting of shareholders. In addition, the articles of incorporation of Peoples provide that shareholders may not take any action by written consent in lieu of an annual or special meeting of shareholders.

The bylaws of United provide that a special meeting of shareholders may be called upon the written request of the holders of shares representing at least 25% of the votes that would be entitled to be cast on each issue proposed to be considered at the special meeting. In addition the bylaws of United provide that the United shareholders may take any action by written consent in lieu of a meeting if such consent is signed by the holders of outstanding stock having not less than the minimum number of votes necessary to authorize or take such action at a meeting.

Dividends

United declared cash dividends of $.10 per share in the first quarter of 2001, and $.10 per share in the second quarter of 2001, and paid aggregate cash dividends of $.30 per share in 2000, $.20 per share in 1999 and $.15 per share in 1998. Although United intends to continue paying cash dividends following the merger, United cannot guarantee that it will be able to make dividend payments in the future. The amount and frequency of any cash dividends will be determined by United's board of directors after consideration of earnings, capital requirements, and the financial condition of United. Additionally, United's ability to pay cash dividends will depend on cash dividends paid to it by its subsidiary banks. The ability of those subsidiaries to pay dividends to United is restricted by certain regulatory requirements.

Peoples has paid no dividends since its incorporation in 1996. Peoples is prohibited under the merger agreement from paying dividends prior to the closing of the transaction without the prior written consent of United.

Whether the Peoples shareholders approve the merger agreement, and regardless of whether the merger is completed, the future dividend policies of United and Peoples will depend upon each company's respective earnings, financial condition, appropriate legal restrictions, and other factors relevant at the time the respective boards of directors consider whether to declare dividends.

Accounting Treatment

United intends to account for the merger as a purchase for financial reporting and accounting purposes. After the merger, the results of operations of Peoples will be included in the consolidated financial statements of United. The purchase price will be allocated based on the fair values of the assets acquired and the liabilities assumed. Any excess of cost over fair value of the net tangible and identified intangible assets of Peoples acquired will be recorded as goodwill. Any identified intangible asset may be amortized by charges to operations under general accepted accounting principles.

Resales of United Common Stock by Directors and Executive Officers of Peoples

Although United, through this proxy statement/prospectus, will register the United common stock to be issued in the merger under the Securities Act of 1933, the former directors, executive officers, and shareholders of Peoples who are deemed to be affiliates of United may not resell the United common stock received by them unless those sales are made pursuant to an effective registration statement under the Securities Act of 1933, or under Rules 144 and 145 of the Securities Act, or another exemption from registration under the Securities Act. Rules 144 and 145 limit the amount of United common stock or other equity securities of United that those persons may sell during any three month period, and require that certain current public information with respect to United be available and that the United common stock be sold in a broker's transaction or directly to a market maker in United common stock.

Regulatory Approvals

The Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System and the Department of Banking and Finance of the State of Georgia have approved the merger. In determining whether to grant that approval, the Federal Reserve and the Department of Banking and Finance considered the effect of the merger on the financial and managerial resources and future prospects of the companies and banks concerned and the convenience and needs of the communities to be served.

The Department of Banking and Finance's review of the application did not include an evaluation of the proposed transaction from the financial perspective of the individual shareholders of Peoples. Further, no shareholder should construe the approval of the application by the Department of Banking and Finance to be a recommendation that the shareholders vote to approve the proposal. Each shareholder entitled to vote should evaluate the proposal to determine the personal financial impact of the completion of the proposed transaction. Shareholders not fully knowledgeable in such matters are advised to obtain the assistance of competent professionals in evaluating all aspects of the proposal including any determination that the completion of the proposed transaction is in the best financial interest of the shareholder.

Rights of Dissenting Shareholders

Peoples is a corporation organized under the laws of the State of Georgia, and its principal place of business and executive offices are in the State of Georgia. Georgia law confers certain rights upon shareholders of corporations organized under its laws to demand payment for the fair value of all of their shares, and it establishes procedures for the exercise of those rights. These shareholder rights are referred to within this document as "dissenters' rights."

If the merger is completed, under Article 13 of the Georgia Business Corporation Code, a Peoples shareholder who dissents from the merger, and who otherwise complies with the provisions of Article 13, is entitled to demand and receive payment in cash of an amount equal to the fair value of all, but not less than all, of such holder's shares of Peoples common stock.

A dissenting shareholder of Peoples must exercise his or her dissenters' rights with respect to all of the shares he or she owns, except for those shares registered in the dissenting shareholder's name but beneficially owned by another person. If a dissenting shareholder of Peoples has shares registered in his or her name that are beneficially owned by another person, the dissenting shareholder may assert dissenters' rights for less than all of the shares registered in his or her name, but only if he or she notifies Peoples in writing of the name and address of each person on whose behalf he or she asserts dissenters' rights. For the purpose of determining the amount to be received in connection with the exercise of statutory dissenters' rights under the Georgia Business Corporation Code, Georgia law provides that the fair value of a dissenting Peoples shareholder's common stock equals the value of the shares immediately before the effective date of the merger, excluding any appreciation or depreciation in anticipation of the merger.

A Peoples shareholder who chooses to dissent from the merger and to receive payment of the fair value of his or her shares of Peoples common stock in accordance with the requirements of the Georgia Business Corporation Code must:

- deliver to Peoples, prior to the time the shareholder vote on the merger agreement is taken, a written notice of his or her intent to demand payment for his or her shares if the merger is completed; and
- not vote his, her, or its shares in favor of the merger agreement.

A filing of the written notice of intent to dissent with respect to the merger should be sent to: Elaine B. Lovvorn, Corporate Secretary, 119 Maple Street, Carrollton, Georgia 30117. A vote against the merger agreement alone will not satisfy the requirements for compliance with Article 13 of the Georgia Business Corporation Code. A shareholder who wishes to dissent from the merger must, as an initial matter, separately comply with all of the conditions listed above.

Within ten days after the vote of Peoples shareholders is taken at the special meeting, Peoples will provide to each shareholder who timely submitted a written notice of intent to dissent, and who did not vote in favor of the merger at the special meeting, a dissenters' notice that:

- states where the dissenting shareholder is to send his, her, or its payment demand, and where the certificates for the dissenting shareholder's shares, if any, are to be deposited;
- informs holders of uncertificated shares of Peoples common stock as to what extent transfer of the shares will be restricted after the payment demand is received;
- sets a date by which Peoples must receive the dissenting shareholder's payment demand; and
- is accompanied by a copy of Article 13 of the Georgia Business Corporation Code.

Following receipt of the dissenters' notice, each dissenting Peoples shareholder must deposit his or her Peoples share certificates and demand payment from Peoples in accordance with the terms of the dissenters' notice. A dissenting shareholder who does not deposit his or her share certificates and demand payment from Peoples by the date set forth in the dissenters' notice will forfeit his, her, or its right to payment under Article 13 of the Georgia Business Corporation Code.

Within ten days after the later of the date that the vote of Peoples shareholders is taken at the special meeting, or the date on which Peoples receives a payment demand, Peoples will send a written offer to each shareholder who complied with the provisions set forth in the dissenters' notice to pay each such shareholder an amount that Peoples estimates to be the fair value of his or her shares, plus accrued interest. The offer of payment will be accompanied by:

- Peoples' balance sheet as of the end of a fiscal year ending not more than 16 months before the date of making an offer, an income statement for that year, a statement of changes in shareholders' equity for that year, and the latest available interim financial statements, if any;
- an explanation of how any interest was calculated;
- a statement of the dissenting shareholder's right to demand payment of a different amount under Section 14-2-1327 of the Georgia Business Corporation Code; and
- a copy of Article 13 of the Georgia Business Corporation Code.

If the dissenting shareholder chooses to accept Peoples' offer of payment, he, she or it must do so by written notice to Peoples within 30 days after receipt of Peoples' offer of payment. A dissenting shareholder will be deemed to have accepted the offer of payment if he or she does not respond to that offer within the 30-day period. Peoples must make payment to each shareholder who responds to the offer of payment within 60 days after the making of the offer of payment, or the effective date of the merger, whichever is later. Upon payment, the dissenting shareholder will cease to have any interest in his, her, or its shares of Peoples common stock.

If within 30 days after Peoples offers payment for the shares of a dissenting shareholder, the dissenting shareholder does not accept the estimate of fair value of his, her, or its shares and interest due thereon and demands payment of his, her, or its own estimate of the fair value of the shares and interest due thereon, then Peoples, within 60 days after receiving the payment demand of a dissenting shareholder, must file an action in the Superior Court in Carroll County, Georgia, requesting that the fair value of those shares be determined. Peoples must make all dissenting shareholders whose demands remain unsettled parties to the proceeding. If Peoples does not commence the proceeding within that 60-day period, it will be required to pay each dissenting shareholder whose demand remains unsettled the amount demanded by the dissenting shareholder.

Peoples urges its shareholders to read all of the dissenter's rights provisions of the Georgia Business Corporation Code, which are reproduced in full in Appendix B to this proxy statement/prospectus and which are incorporated by reference into this proxy statement/prospectus.

Material Federal Income Tax Consequences of the Merger and Opinion of Tax Counsel

Peoples has received an opinion from Kilpatrick Stockton LLP to the effect that, assuming the merger is completed in accordance with the terms of the merger agreement:

- the merger of United and Peoples and the issuance of shares of United common stock in connection therewith will constitute a tax-free reorganization under Section 368(a)(1)(A) of the Internal Revenue Code;
- no gain or loss will be recognized by holders of Peoples common stock upon the exchange of such stock for United common stock;

- gain or loss will be recognized pursuant to Section 302 of the Internal Revenue Code, by holders of Peoples common stock upon their receipt of cash in lieu of fractional shares of United common stock and upon their exercise of dissenters' rights;
- no gain or loss will be recognized by Peoples as a result of the merger;
- the aggregate tax basis of United common stock received by shareholders of Peoples in the merger will be the same as the tax basis of the shares of Peoples common stock exchanged therefor, decreased by any portion of such tax basis allocated to fractional shares of United common stock that are treated as redeemed by United; and
- the holding period of the shares of United common stock received by the shareholders of Peoples will include the holding period of the shares of Peoples common stock exchanged therefor, provided that the stock of Peoples is held as a capital asset on the date of the consummation of the merger.

No ruling will be requested from the Internal Revenue Service with respect to any Federal income tax consequences of the merger.

The foregoing tax opinion and the preceding discussion relate to the material federal income tax consequences of the merger to Peoples shareholders. Peoples shareholders are advised to consult their own tax advisors as to any state, local, or other tax consequences of the merger.

INFORMATION ABOUT UNITED COMMUNITY BANKS, INC.

Description of Securities

The following is a summary of material provisions of United's common stock, preferred stock, and debentures:

General

The authorized capital stock of United currently consists of 50,000,000 shares of common stock, $1.00 par value per share and 10,000,000 shares of preferred stock, $1.00 par value per share. As of August 31, 2001, 10,544,836 shares of common stock, including 140,000 shares deemed outstanding pursuant to outstanding debentures and presently exercisable options to acquire 391,645 shares of common stock, were issued and outstanding, and 172,600 shares of Series A Non-Cumulative Preferred Stock were issued and outstanding.

Common Stock

All voting rights are vested in the holders of the common stock. Each holder of common stock is entitled to one vote per share on any issue requiring a vote at any meeting. The shares do not have cumulative voting rights. Subject to the right of holders of United's Series A Non-Cumulative Preferred Stock to receive dividends, all shares of United common stock are entitled to share equally in any dividends that United's board of directors may declare on United common stock from sources legally available for distribution. The determination and declaration of dividends is within the discretion of United's board of directors. Upon liquidation, holders of United common stock will be entitled to receive on a pro rata basis, after payment or provision for payment of all debts and liabilities of United, and after all distributions payments are made to holders of United's Series A Non-Cumulative Preferred Stock, all assets of United available for distribution, in cash or in kind.

The outstanding shares of United common stock are, and the shares of United common stock to be issued by United in connection with the merger will be, duly authorized, validly issued, fully paid, and nonassessable.

Preferred Stock

United is authorized to issue 10,000,000 shares of preferred stock, issuable in specified series and having specified voting, dividend, conversion, liquidation, and other rights and preferences as United's board of directors may determine. The preferred stock may be issued for any lawful corporate purpose without further action by United shareholders. The issuance of any preferred stock having conversion rights might have the effect of diluting the interests of United's other shareholders. In addition, shares of preferred stock could be issued with certain rights, privileges, and preferences which would deter a tender or exchange offer or discourage the acquisition of control of United.

On September 29, 2000, by filing articles of amendment to United's articles of incorporation, United's board of directors designated 287,411 of the 10,000,000 authorized shares of preferred stock as "Series A Non-Cumulative Preferred Stock." The Series A stock has a stated value of $10.00 per share, and holders of Series A stock are entitled to a preferential annual dividend of 6%, payable quarterly on each January 1, April 1, July 1 and October 1. The declaration of dividends with respect to the Series A stock is within the discretion of United's board of directors.

In addition, holders of the Series A stock are entitled to receive, on a pro rata basis, distributions upon liquidation prior to any payment by United to the holders of its common stock, in an amount equal to the stated value per share of the Series A stock, plus any accrued but unpaid dividends. The Series A stock has no voting rights, except as required under the Georgia Business Corporation Code, and is not convertible into shares of common stock or other securities of United. Subject to approval by the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System, United may, at its option, redeem all or part of the Series A stock outstanding by paying cash for such shares in an amount equal to the stated value per share, plus any accrued but unpaid dividends.

Debentures

Debentures in the principal amount of $3.5 million that are due on December 31, 2006, are outstanding as of August 31, 2001. These debentures bear interest at the rate of one quarter of one percentage point over the prime rate per annum as quoted in The Wall Street Journal, payable on April 1, July 1, October 1, and January 1 of each year commencing on April 1, 1998, to holders of record at the close of business on the 15th day of the month immediately preceding the interest payment date. Interest is computed on the basis of the actual number of days elapsed in a year of 365 or 366 days, as applicable. Interest on the debentures is payable, at the option of the board of directors of United, in cash or in an additional debenture with the same terms as the outstanding debentures.

The debentures may be redeemed, in whole or in part, from time to time on or after January 1, 1999, at the option of United upon at least 20 days and not more than 60 days notice, at a redemption price equal to 100% of the principal amount of the debentures to be redeemed plus interest accrued and unpaid as of the date of redemption. The holder of any debentures not called for redemption will have the right, exercisable at any time up to December 31, 2006, to convert those debentures at the principal amount thereof into shares of United common stock at the conversion price of $25.00 per share, subject to adjustment for stock splits and stock dividends. The debentures are unsecured obligations of United and are subordinate in right of payment to all obligations of United to its other creditors, except obligations ranking on a parity with or junior to the debentures. The debentures were not issued pursuant to an indenture, and no trustee acts on behalf of debenture holders.

Transfer Agent and Registrar

The Transfer Agent and Registrar for United's common stock and the debentures is SunTrust Bank, 58 Edgewood Avenue, Room 2000, Atlanta, Georgia 30303.

Certain Provisions of United's Articles of Incorporation and Bylaws Regarding Change of Control

Ability to Consider Other Constituencies

United's articles of incorporation permit its board of directors, in determining what is believed to be in the best interest of United and its shareholders, to consider the interests of its employees, customers, suppliers and creditors, the communities in which its offices and establishments are located and all other factors that they consider pertinent, in addition to considering the effects of any actions on United and its shareholders. This provision permits United's board of directors to consider numerous judgmental or subjective factors affecting a proposal, including some non-financial matters, and on the basis of these considerations may oppose a business combination or some other transaction which, viewed exclusively from a financial perspective, might be attractive to some, or even a majority, of its shareholders.

Amendments to Articles of Incorporation and Bylaws

United's articles of incorporation specifically provide that the neither the articles of incorporation nor the bylaws of United may be amended without the affirmative vote the holders of two-thirds of the shares issued and outstanding and entitled to vote thereon, except for provisions relating to increasing the number of authorized shares of common and preferred stock of United. This provision could allow the holders of 33.4% of the outstanding capital stock of United to exercise an effective veto over a proposed amendment to the articles or bylaws, despite the fact that the holders of 66.6% of the shares favor the proposal. This provision protects, among other things, the defensive measures included in United's articles of incorporation and bylaws by making more difficult future amendments to the articles of incorporation and bylaws that could result in the deletion or revision of such defensive measures.

Supermajority Approval of Interested Business Combinations

United's articles of incorporation provide that if a proposed business combination between United and any interested shareholder is not approved by three-fourths of all directors of United then in office, the business combination must be approved by the affirmative vote of the holders of at least 75% of the outstanding shares of United's common stock, including the affirmative vote of the holders of at least 75% of the outstanding shares of common stock held by shareholders other than the interested shareholder. This provision may discourage attempts by other corporations or groups to acquire control of United, without negotiation with management, through the acquisition of a substantial number of shares of United's stock followed by a forced merger. This provision may also enable a minority of the shareholders of United to prevent a transaction favored by a majority of the shareholders, and may discourage tender offers or other non-open market acquisitions of United's common stock because of the potentially higher vote requirements for shareholder approval of any subsequent business combination. Additionally, in some circumstances, United's board of directors could, by withholding its consent to such a transaction, cause the 75%/75% shareholder vote to be required to approve a business combination, thereby enabling management to retain control over the affairs of United and their present positions with United.

Removal of Directors

United's articles of incorporation provide that a member of United's board of directors may only be removed for cause, and only upon the affirmative vote of two-thirds of the outstanding shares of capital stock of United entitled to vote thereon. This provision may prevent a significant shareholder from avoiding board scrutiny of a proposed business combination by merely removing directors with conflicting views, and may encourage individuals or groups who desire to propose takeover bids or similar transactions to negotiate with the board of directors. However, outside of the context of an acquisition attempt, it may serve as an impediment to a more legitimate need to remove a director.

A WARNING ABOUT FORWARD-LOOKING STATEMENTS

Some of the statements made in this proxy statement/prospectus (and in other documents to which it refers) are "forward-looking statements." These statements are based on the beliefs, assumptions, and expectations of United's and Peoples' management, and on information currently available to those members of management. They are expressions based on historical fact, but do not guarantee future performance. Forward-looking statements include information concerning possible or assumed future results of operations of United after the proposed merger. Forward-looking statements involve risks, uncertainties, and assumptions, and certain factors could cause actual results to differ from results expressed or implied by the forward-looking statements, including:

- economic conditions (both generally, and more specifically in the markets where United and Peoples operate);
- competition from other companies that provide financial services similar to those offered by United and Peoples;
- government regulation and legislation;
- changes in interest rates;
- unexpected changes in the financial stability and liquidity of United's and Peoples' credit customers;
- combining the businesses of United and Peoples may cost more or take longer than expected;

Prior to consummation of the Merger, the parties to this Agreement will provide one another with information which may be deemed by the party providing the information to be confidential. Each party agrees that it will hold confidential and protect all information provided to it by the other party to this Agreement or such party's affiliates, except that the obligations contained in this Section 3.5 shall not in any way restrict the rights of any party or person to use information that (i) was known to such party prior to the disclosure by the other party; (ii) is or becomes generally available to the public other than by breach of this Agreement; (iii) is provided by one party for disclosure concerning such party in the United Registration Statement; or (iv) otherwise becomes lawfully available to a party to this Agreement on a nonconfidential basis from a third party who is not under an obligation of confidence to the other party to this Agreement. If this Agreement is terminated prior to the Closing, each party hereto agrees to return all documents, statements and other written materials, whether or not confidential, and all copies thereof, provided to it by or on behalf of the other party to this Agreement. The provisions of this Section 3.5 shall survive termination, for any reason whatsoever, of this Agreement, and, without limiting the remedies of the parties hereto in the event of any breach of this Section 3.5, the parties hereto will be entitled to seek injunctive relief against the other party in the event of a breach or threatened breach of this Section 3.5.

Each of the directors and executive officers of Peoples will, contemporaneously with the execution of this Agreement, execute and deliver to United an agreement, the form of which is attached hereto as Exhibit B, pursuant to which each of them agrees, subject to their fiduciary duty, (i) to recommend to Peoples shareholders approval of the Merger, (ii) to vote the capital stock of Peoples owned or controlled by them in favor of the Merger, and (iii) to transfer or assign shares of United Stock received by them in connection with the Merger only in compliance with the 1933 Act, applicable state securities laws and the rules and regulations promulgated under either.

3.11 Press Releases. Prior to the Effective Date, Peoples and United shall agree with each other as to the form and substance of any press release or other public disclosure materially related to this Agreement or any other transaction contemplated hereby; provided, however, that nothing in this Section 3.11 shall be deemed to prohibit any Party from making any disclosure which its counsel deems necessary or advisable in order to satisfy such Party's disclosure obligations imposed by law.

3.12 Employee Benefits and Contracts. Following the Effective Date, United shall provide generally to officers, employees and former employees of Peoples who continue employment with United employee benefits on terms and conditions which, when taken as a whole, are substantially similar to those then currently provided by United to its other similarly situated officers, employees and former employees. If, during the calendar year in which falls the Effective Date, United shall terminate any "group health plan", within the meaning of Section 4980B(g)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code, in which one or more Peoples employees participated immediately prior to the Effective Date (a "Peoples Plan"), United shall cause any successor group health plan to waive any underwriting requirements; to give credit for any such Peoples employee's participation in the Peoples Plan prior to the Effective Date for purposes of applying any pre-existing condition limitations set forth therein; and to give credit for covered expenses paid by any such Peoples employee under a Peoples Plan prior to the Effective Date towards satisfaction of any annual deductible limitation and out-of-pocket maximum applied under such successor group health plan. True, correct and complete copies of all ERISA Plans and, to the extent applicable, all related trust agreements, insurance contracts, summary plan descriptions, Internal Revenue Service determination letters and filings, the past three years of actuarial reports and valuations, annual reports and Form 5500 filings (including attachments), and any other related documents requested by United or its counsel have been, or prior to the Closing Date will be, made available to United.

(c) Peoples is not currently and has never been in the past required to contribute to a multiemployer plan as defined in Section 3(37)(A) of ERISA. Peoples does not maintain or contribute to, nor within the past six years has it maintained or contributed to, an employee pension benefit plan as defined in Section 3(2) of ERISA that is or was subject to Title IV of ERISA.

(d) Each ERISA Plan has been operated and administered in all material respects in accordance with, and has been amended to comply with (unless such amendment is not yet required), all applicable laws, rules and regulations, including, without limitation, ERISA, the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended ("Code"), and the regulations issued under ERISA and the Code. With respect to each ERISA Plan, other than routine claims for benefits submitted in the ordinary course of the benefits process, no litigation or administrative or other proceeding is pending or, to the knowledge of Peoples, threatened involving such ERISA Plan or any of its fiduciaries. With respect to each ERISA Plan, neither Peoples nor any of its directors, officers, employees or agents, nor to Peoples' knowledge, any "party in interest" or "disqualified person" (as such terms are defined in Section 3(14) of ERISA and Section 4975 of the Code) has been engaged in or been a party to any transaction relating to the ERISA Plan which would constitute a breach of fiduciary duty under ERISA or a "prohibited transaction" (as such term is defined in Section 406 of ERISA or Section 4975 of the Code), unless such transaction is specifically permitted under Sections 407 or 408 of ERISA, Section 4975 of the Code or a class or administrative exemption issued by the Department of Labor. Each ERISA Plan that is a group health plan within the meaning of Section 607(l) of ERISA and Section 4980B of the Code is in material compliance with the continuation coverage requirements of Section 501 of ERISA and Section 4980B of the Code.

(e) Of the ERISA Plans, the "employee pension benefit plans" within the meaning of Section 3(2) of ERISA (collectively, the "Employee Pension Benefit Plans") are separately identified on the Peoples Disclosure Memorandum. With respect to each Employee Pension Benefit Plan, except as set forth on the Peoples Disclosure Memorandum: (i) such Employee Pension Benefit Plan constitutes a qualified plan within the meaning of Section 401(a) of the Code and the trust is exempt from federal income tax under Section 501(a) of the Code; (ii) all contributions required by such plan have been made or will be made on a timely basis; and (iii) no termination, partial termination or discontinuance of contributions has occurred without a determination by the IRS that such action does not affect the tax-qualified status of such plan.

(f) As of the Closing Date, with respect to each ERISA Plan, Peoples will have provided adequate reserves, or insurance or qualified trust funds, to provide for all payments and contributions required, or reasonably expected to be required, to be made under the provisions of such ERISA Plan or required to be made under applicable laws, rules and regulations, with respect to any period prior to the Closing Date to the extent reserves are required under generally accepted accounting principles, based on an actuarial valuation satisfactory to the actuaries of Peoples representing a projection of claims expected to be incurred under such ERISA Plan.

(g) Except as disclosed on the Peoples Disclosure Memorandum, Peoples does not provide and has no obligation to provide benefits, including, without limitation, death, health or medical benefits (whether or not insured) with respect to current or former employees of Peoples beyond their retirement or other termination of service with Peoples other than (i) coverage mandated by applicable Law, (ii) benefits under the Employee Pension Benefit Plans, or (iii) benefits the full cost of which is borne by the current or former employee or his beneficiary.

(h) Neither this Agreement nor any transaction contemplated hereby will (i) entitle any current or former employee, officer or director of Peoples to severance pay, unemployment compensation or any similar or other payment, or (ii) accelerate the time of payment or vesting of, or increase the amount of compensation or benefits due any such employee, officer or director.

4.5.3 Labor-Related Matters. Except as described in the Peoples Disclosure Memorandum, Peoples is not, and has not been, a party to any collective bargaining agreement or agreement of any kind with any union or labor organization or to any agreement with any of its employees which is not terminable at will or upon ninety (90) days notice at the election of, and without cost or penalty to, Peoples. Peoples has not received at any time in the past five (5) years, any demand for recognition from any union, and no attempt has been made, or will have been made as of the Closing Date, to organize any of its employees. Peoples has complied in all material respects with all obligations under the National Labor Relations Act, as amended, the Age Discrimination in Employment Act, as amended, and all other federal, state and local labor laws and regulations applicable to employees. There are no unfair labor practice charges pending or threatened against Peoples, and there are, and in the past three (3) years there have been, no charges, complaints, claims or proceedings, no slowdowns or strikes pending or threatened against, or involving, as the case may be, Peoples with respect to any alleged violation of any legal duty (including but not limited to any wage and hour claims, employment discrimination claims or claims arising out of any employment relationship) by Peoples as to any of its employees or as to any person seeking employment therefrom, and no such violations exist.

4.5.4 Related Party Transactions. Except for (a) loans and extensions of credit made on substantially the same terms, including interest rates and collateral, as those prevailing at the time for comparable transactions by Peoples with other persons who are not affiliated with Peoples, and which do not involve more than the normal risk of repayment or present other unfavorable features, (b) deposits, all of which are on terms and conditions identical to those made available to all customers of Peoples at the time such deposits were entered into, and (c) transactions specifically described in the Peoples Disclosure Memorandum, there are no contracts with or commitments to present or former 5% or greater shareholders, directors, officers, or employees involving the expenditure after December 31, 1995 of more than $60,000 as to any one individual, including with respect to any business directly or indirectly controlled by any such person, or $100,000 for all such contracts or commitments in the aggregate for all such individuals (other than contracts or commitments relating to services to be performed by any officer, director or employee as a currently-employed employee of Peoples).

4.6 Other Matters.

4.6.1 Regulatory Reports. Peoples will make available to United for review and inspection all applications, reports or other documents filed by it for each of its past three full fiscal years with any regulatory or governmental agencies. All of such applications, reports and other documents have been prepared in accordance with applicable rules and regulations of the regulatory agencies with which they were filed.

4.6.2 Approvals, Consents and Filings. Except for the approval of the Federal Reserve and the Department of Banking, or as set forth in the Peoples Disclosure Memorandum, neither the execution and delivery of this Agreement nor the consummation of the transactions contemplated hereby or thereby will (a) require any consent, approval, authorization or permit of, or filing with or notification to, any governmental or regulatory authority, or (b) violate any order, writ, injunction, decree, statute, rule or regulation applicable to Peoples, or any of Peoples' assets.

4.6.3 Default. (a) Except for those consents described in or set forth pursuant to Section 4.6.2 above, neither the execution of this Agreement nor consummation of the transactions contemplated herein (i) constitutes a breach of or default under any contract or commitment to which Peoples is a party or by which Peoples or its properties or assets are bound, (ii) does or will result in the creation or imposition of any security interest, lien, encumbrance, charge, equity or restriction of any nature whatsoever in favor of any third party upon any assets of Peoples, or (iii) constitutes an event permitting termination of any agreement or the acceleration of any indebtedness of Peoples.

(b) Peoples is not in default under its articles of incorporation or bylaws or under any term or provision of any security deed, mortgage, indenture or security agreement or of any other contract or instrument to which Peoples is a party or by which it or any of its property is bound.

4.6.4 Representations and Warranties. No representation or warranty contained in this Article IV or in any written statement delivered by or at the direction of Peoples pursuant hereto or in connection with the transactions contemplated hereby contains or shall contain any untrue statement, nor shall such representations and warranties taken as a whole omit any statement necessary in order to make any statement not misleading. Copies of all documents that have been or will be furnished to United in connection with this Agreement or pursuant hereto are or shall be true, correct and complete.

AGREEMENT AND PLAN OF MERGER

THIS AGREEMENT AND PLAN OF MERGER (the "Agreement") is made and entered into as of this 29th day of June, 2001, by and between UNITED COMMUNITY BANKS, INC. ("United") and PEOPLES BANCORP, INC. ("Peoples"), both Georgia corporations (said corporations are hereinafter collectively referred to as the "Constituent Corporations").

R E C I T A L S:

WHEREAS, the authorized capital stock of United consists of 50,000,000 shares of Common Stock, $1.00 par value per share (the "United Stock"), of which 10,544,836 shares are issued and outstanding and 10,000,000 shares of Preferred Stock of which 1,726,000 shares are issued and outstanding; and

WHEREAS, the authorized capital stock of Peoples consists of 10,000,000 shares of Common Stock, $.01 par value per share, of which 800,000 shares are issued and outstanding, and 71,500 shares are subject to currently outstanding options (the "Peoples Stock") and 1,000,000 shares of Preferred Stock, $.01 par value per share, of which no shares are issued and outstanding; and

WHEREAS, the respective Boards of Directors of the Constituent Corporations deem it advisable and in the best interests of each such corporation and its shareholders that Peoples merge with United, with United being the surviving corporation; and

WHEREAS, the respective Boards of Directors of the Constituent Corporations, by resolutions duly adopted, have unanimously approved and adopted this Agreement, and the Board of Directors of Peoples, by resolution duly adopted, has directed that this Agreement be submitted to the shareholders of Peoples for their approval; and

WHEREAS, United has agreed to issue shares of United Stock which shareholders of Peoples will be entitled to receive, according to the terms and conditions contained herein, on or after the Effective Date (as defined herein) of the merger provided for herein.

NOW, THEREFORE, for and in consideration of the premises and the mutual agreements herein contained, and other good and valuable consideration, the receipt and adequacy of which as legally sufficient consideration are hereby acknowledged, the parties hereto have agreed and do hereby agree, as follows:

1. MERGER.

Pursuant to and with the effects provided in the applicable provisions of Article 11 of the Georgia Business Corporation Code, as amended (Chapter 2 of Title 14 of the Official Code of Georgia), Peoples (hereinafter sometimes referred to as the "Merged Corporation") shall be merged with and into United (the "Merger"). United shall be the surviving corporation (the "Surviving Corporation") and shall continue under the name "United Community Banks, Inc." On the Effective Date (as defined herein) of the Merger, the individual existence of the Merged Corporation shall cease and terminate.

2. ACTIONS TO BE TAKEN.

The acts and things required to be done by the Georgia Business Corporation Code in order to make this Agreement effective, including the submission of this Agreement to the shareholders of the Merged Corporation and the filing of the Certificate of Merger relating hereto in the manner provided in said Code, shall be attended to and done by the proper officers of the Constituent Corporations with the assistance of counsel as soon as practicable.

3. EFFECTIVE DATE.

The Merger shall be effective upon the approval of this Agreement by the shareholders of the Merged Corporation and the filing of the Certificate of Merger relating hereto in the manner provided in the Georgia Business Corporation Code (the "Effective Date").

4. ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION AND BYLAWS OF THE SURVIVING CORPORATION.

- a. The Articles of Incorporation of United, as heretofore amended, shall on the Effective Date be the Articles of Incorporation of the Surviving Corporation.
- b. Until altered, amended or repealed, as therein provided, the Bylaws of United as in effect on the Effective Date shall be the Bylaws of the Surviving Corporation.

5. MANNER AND BASIS OF CONVERTING SHARES OF CAPITAL STOCK; CAPITAL STRUCTURE OF THE SURVIVING CORPORATION.

The manner and basis of converting the shares of capital stock of each of the Constituent Corporations into shares of the Surviving Corporation shall be as follows:

- a. Upon the Effective Date each of the shares of Peoples Stock outstanding on the Effective Date shall be converted into fully paid and nonassessable shares of United Stock at the rate of .4473684 shares of United Stock for each outstanding share of Peoples Stock. If either party should change the number of its outstanding shares as a result of a stock split, stock dividend, or similar recapitalization with respect to such shares prior to the Effective Date then the shares to be issued hereunder to holders of Peoples Stock shall be proportionately adjusted.

- b. No scrip or fractional share certificates of United Stock shall be issued in connection with the Merger and an outstanding fractional share interest will not entitle the owner thereof to vote, to receive dividends or to have any of the rights of a shareholder with respect to such fractional interest. In lieu of any fractional interest, there shall be paid in cash an amount (computed to the nearest cent) equal to such fraction multiplied by $38.00.
- c. Upon the Effective Date, all rights with respect to Peoples Stock pursuant to stock options (the "Peoples Stock Options") granted by Peoples which are outstanding at the Effective Date, whether or not exercisable, shall be converted into and become rights with respect to United Stock, and United shall assume each Peoples Stock Option in accordance with the terms of the stock option plan and the stock option agreement by which it is evidenced. From and after the Effective Date, (i) each Peoples Stock Option assumed by United may be exercised solely for shares of United Stock, (ii) the number of shares of United Stock subject to such Peoples Stock Option shall be equal to the product of the number of shares of Peoples Stock subject to such Peoples Stock Option immediately prior to the Effective Date multiplied by .4473684, and (iii) the per share exercise price under each such Peoples Stock Option shall be adjusted by dividing the per share exercise price by .4473684 and rounding down to the nearest cent.
- d. As soon as practicable after the Effective Date, each holder as of the Effective Date of any of the shares of Peoples Stock, upon presentation and surrender of the certificates representing such shares to United, shall be entitled to receive in exchange therefor a certificate representing the number of shares of United Stock to which such shareholder shall be entitled according to the terms of this Agreement. Until such surrender, each such outstanding certificate which prior to the Effective Date represented Peoples Stock shall be deemed for all corporate purposes to evidence ownership of the number of shares of United Stock into which the same shall have been converted and the right to receive payment for fractional shares.
- e. Upon the Effective Date, each share of United Stock issued and outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Date shall continue unchanged and shall continue to evidence a share of common stock of the Surviving Corporation.

6. TERMINATION OF SEPARATE EXISTENCE.

Upon the Effective Date, the separate existence of the Merged Corporation shall cease and the Surviving Corporation shall possess all of the rights, privileges, immunities, powers and franchises, as well of a public nature as of a private nature, of each of the Constituent Corporations; and all property, real, personal and mixed, and all debts due on whatever account, and all other choses in action, and all and every other interest of or belonging to or due to each of the Constituent Corporations shall be taken and deemed to be transferred to and vested in the Surviving Corporation without further act or deed, and the title to any real estate or any interest therein, vested in either of the Constituent Corporations shall not revert or be in any way impaired by reason of the Merger. The Surviving Corporation shall thenceforth be responsible and liable for all the liabilities, obligations and penalties of each of the Constituent Corporations; and any claim existing or action or proceeding, civil or criminal, pending by or against either of said Constituent Corporations may be prosecuted as if the Merger had not taken place, or the Surviving Corporation may be substituted in its place, and any judgment rendered against either of the Constituent Corporations may thenceforth be enforced against the Surviving Corporation; and neither the rights of creditors nor any liens upon the property of either of the Constituent Corporations shall be impaired by the Merger.

7. FURTHER ASSIGNMENTS.

If at any time the Surviving Corporation shall consider or be advised that any further assignments or assurances in law or any other things are necessary or desirable to vest in said corporation, according to the terms hereof, the title to any property or rights of the Merged Corporation, the proper officers and directors of the Merged Corporation shall and will execute and make all such proper assignments and assurances and do all things necessary and proper to vest title in such property or rights in the Surviving Corporation, and otherwise to carry out the purposes of this Agreement.

8. CONDITIONS PRECEDENT TO CONSUMMATION OF THE MERGER.

This Agreement is subject to, and consummation of the Merger is conditioned upon, the fulfillment as of the Effective Date of each of the following conditions:

- a. Approval of this Agreement by the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the outstanding voting shares of Peoples Stock; and
- b. All the terms, covenants, agreements, obligations and conditions of the Agreement and Plan of Reorganization (the "Acquisition Agreement") of even date herewith by and between Peoples and United to be complied with, satisfied and performed on or prior to the Closing Date (as defined therein), shall have been complied with, satisfied and performed in all material respects unless accomplishment of such covenants, agreements, obligations and conditions has been waived by the party benefited thereby.

9. TERMINATION.

This Agreement may be terminated and the Merger abandoned in accordance with the terms of the Acquisition Agreement, at any time before or after adoption of this Agreement by the directors of either of the Constituent Corporations, notwithstanding favorable action on the Merger by the shareholders of the Merged Corporation, but not later than the issuance of the certificate of merger by the Secretary of State of Georgia with respect to the Merger in accordance with the provisions of the Georgia Business Corporation Code.

10. COUNTERPARTS; TITLE; HEADINGS.

This Agreement may be executed simultaneously in any number of counterparts, each of which shall be deemed an original, but all of which shall constitute one and the same instrument. The title of this Agreement and the headings herein set out are for the convenience of reference only and shall not be deemed a part of this Agreement.

11. AMENDMENTS; ADDITIONAL AGREEMENTS.

At any time before or after approval and adoption by the shareholders of Peoples, this Agreement may be modified, amended or supplemented by additional agreements, articles or certificates as may be determined in the judgment of the respective Boards of Directors of the Constituent Corporations to be necessary, desirable or expedient to further the purposes of this Agreement, to clarify the intention of the parties, to add to or modify the covenants, terms or conditions contained herein or to effectuate or facilitate any governmental approval of the Merger or this Agreement, or otherwise to effectuate or facilitate the consummation of the transactions contemplated hereby; provided, however, that no such modification, amendment or supplement shall reduce to any extent the consideration into which shares of Peoples Stock shall be converted in the Merger pursuant to Section 5 hereof.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the Constituent Corporations have each caused this Agreement to be executed on their respective behalfs and their respective corporate seals to be affixed hereto as of the day and year first above written.

14-2-1303. Dissent by nominees and beneficial owners.

A record shareholder may assert dissenters' rights as to fewer than all the shares registered in his name only if he dissents with respect to all shares beneficially owned by any one beneficial shareholder and notifies the corporation in writing of the name and address of each person on whose behalf he asserts dissenters' rights. The rights of a partial dissenter under this Code section are determined as if the shares as to which he dissents and his other shares were registered in the names of different shareholders. (Code 1981, § 14-2-1303, enacted by Ga. L. 1988, p. 1070, § 1.)

14-2-1320. Notice of dissenters' rights.

(a) If proposed corporate action creating dissenters' rights under Code Section 14-2-1302 is submitted to a vote at a shareholders' meeting, the meeting notice must state that shareholders are or may be entitled to assert dissenters' rights under this article and be accompanied by a copy of this article.

(b) If corporate action creating dissenters' rights under Code Section 14-2-1302 is taken without a vote of shareholders, the corporation shall notify in writing all shareholders entitled to assert dissenters' rights that the action was taken and send them the dissenters' notice described in Code Section 14-2-1322 no later than ten days after the corporate action was taken. (Code 1981, § 14-2-1320, enacted by Ga. L. 1988, p. 1070, § 1; Ga. L. 1993, p. 1231, § 17.)

14-2-1321. Notice of intent to demand payment.

(a) If proposed corporate action creating dissenters' rights under Code Section 14-2-1302 is submitted to a vote at a shareholders' meeting, a record shareholder who wishes to assert dissenters' rights:

(1) Must deliver to the corporation before the vote is taken written notice of his intent to demand payment for his shares if the proposed action is effectuated; and

(2) Must not vote his shares in favor of the proposed action.

(b) A record shareholder who does not satisfy the requirements of subsection (a) of this Code section is not entitled to payment for his shares under this article. (Code 1981, § 14-2-1321, enacted by Ga. L. 1988, p. 1070, § 1.)

14-2-1322. Dissenters' notice.

(a) If proposed corporate action creating dissenters' rights under Code Section 14-2-1302 is authorized at a shareholders' meeting, the corporation shall deliver a written dissenters' notice to all shareholders who satisfied the requirements of Code Section 14-2-1321.

(b) The dissenters' notice must be sent no later than ten days after the corporate action was taken and must:

(1) State where the payment demand must be sent and where and when certificates for certificated shares must be deposited;

- (2) Inform holders of uncertificated shares to what extent transfer of the shares will be restricted after the payment demand is received;
- (3) Set a date by which the corporation must receive the payment demand, which date may not be fewer than 30 nor more than 60 days after the date the notice required in subsection (a) of this Code section is delivered; and
- (4) Be accompanied by a copy of this article. (Code 1981, § 14-2-1322, enacted by Ga. L. 1988, p. 1070, § 1.)

14-2-1323. Duty to demand payment.

- (a) A record shareholder sent a dissenters' notice described in Code Section 14-2-1322 must demand payment and deposit his certificates in accordance with the terms of the notice.
- (b) A record shareholder who demands payment and deposits his shares under subsection (a) of this Code section retains all other rights of a shareholder until these rights are canceled or modified by the taking of the proposed corporate action.
- (c) A record shareholder who does not demand payment or deposit his share certificates where required, each by the date set in the dissenters' notice, is not entitled to payment for his shares under this article. (Code 1981, § 14-2-1323, enacted by Ga. L. 1988, p. 1070, § 1.)

14-2-1324. Share restrictions.

- (a) The corporation may restrict the transfer of uncertificated shares from the date the demand for their payment is received until the proposed corporate action is taken or the restrictions released under Code Section 14-2-1326.
- (b) The person for whom dissenters' rights are asserted as to uncertificated shares retains all other rights of a shareholder until these rights are canceled or modified by the taking of the proposed corporate action. (Code 1981, § 14-2-1324, enacted by Ga. L. 1988, p. 1070, § 1.)

14-2-1325. Offer of payment.

- (a) Except as provided in Code Section 14-2-1327, within ten days of the later of the date the proposed corporate action is taken or receipt of a payment demand, the corporation shall by notice to each dissenter who complied with Code Section 14-2-1323 offer to pay to such dissenter the amount the corporation estimates to be the fair value of his or her shares, plus accrued interest.
- (b) The offer of payment must be accompanied by:
 - (1) The corporation's balance sheet as of the end of a fiscal year ending not more than 16 months before the date of payment, an income statement for that year, a statement of changes in shareholders' equity for that year, and the latest available interim financial statements, if any;
 - (2) A statement of the corporation's estimate of the fair value of the shares;
 - (3) An explanation of how the interest was calculated;

- (4) A statement of the dissenter's right to demand payment under Code Section 14-2-1327; and
- (5) A copy of this article.

(c) If the shareholder accepts the corporation's offer by written notice to the corporation within 30 days after the corporation's offer or is deemed to have accepted such offer by failure to respond within said 30 days, payment for his or her shares shall be made within 60 days after the making of the offer or the taking of the proposed corporate action, whichever is later. (Code 1981, § 14-2-1325, enacted by Ga. L. 1988, p. 1070, § 1; Ga. L. 1989, p. 946, § 59; Ga. L. 1993, p. 1231, § 18.)

14-2-1326. Failure to take action.

(a) If the corporation does not take the proposed action within 60 days after the date set for demanding payment and depositing share certificates, the corporation shall return the deposited certificates and release the transfer restrictions imposed on uncertificated shares.

(b) If, after returning deposited certificates and releasing transfer restrictions, the corporation takes the proposed action, it must send a new dissenters' notice under Code Section 14-2-1322 and repeat the payment demand procedure. (Code 1981, § 14-2-1326, enacted by Ga. L. 1988, p. 1070, § 1; Ga. L. 1990, p. 257, § 20.)

14-2-1327. Procedure if shareholder dissatisfied with payment or offer.

(a) A dissenter may notify the corporation in writing of his own estimate of the fair value of his shares and amount of interest due, and demand payment of his estimate of the fair value of his shares and interest due, if:

(1) The dissenter believes that the amount offered under Code Section 14- 2-1325 is less than the fair value of his shares or that the interest due is incorrectly calculated; or

(2) The corporation, having failed to take the proposed action, does not return the deposited certificates or release the transfer restrictions imposed on uncertificated shares within 60 days after the date set for demanding payment.

(b) A dissenter waives his or her right to demand payment under this Code section and is deemed to have accepted the corporation's offer unless he or she notifies the corporation of his or her demand in writing under subsection (a) of this Code section within 30 days after the corporation offered payment for his or her shares, as provided in Code Section 14-2-1325.

(c) If the corporation does not offer payment within the time set forth in subsection (a) of Code Section 14-2-1325:

(1) The shareholder may demand the information required under subsection (b) of Code Section 14-2-1325, and the corporation shall provide the information to the shareholder within ten days after receipt of a written demand for the information; and

(2) The shareholder may at any time, subject to the limitations period of Code Section 14-2-1332, notify the corporation of his own estimate of the fair value of his shares and the amount of interest due and demand payment of his estimate of the fair value of his shares and interest due. (Code 1981, § 14-2-1327, enacted by Ga. L. 1988, p. 1070, § 1; Ga. L. 1989, p. 946, § 60; Ga. L. 1990, p. 257, § 21; Ga. L. 1993, p. 1231, § 19.)

14-2-1330. Court action.

(a) If a demand for payment under Code Section 14-2-1327 remains unsettled, the corporation shall commence a proceeding within 60 days after receiving the payment demand and petition the court to determine the fair value of the shares and accrued interest. If the corporation does not commence the proceeding within the 60 day period, it shall pay each dissenter whose demand remains unsettled the amount demanded.

(b) The corporation shall commence the proceeding, which shall be a nonjury equitable valuation proceeding, in the superior court of the county where a corporation's registered office is located. If the surviving corporation is a foreign corporation without a registered office in this state, it shall commence the proceeding in the county in this state where the registered office of the domestic corporation merged with or whose shares were acquired by the foreign corporation was located.

(c) The corporation shall make all dissenters, whether or not residents of this state, whose demands remain unsettled parties to the proceeding, which shall have the effect of an action quasi in rem against their shares. The corporation shall serve a copy of the petition in the proceeding upon each dissenting shareholder who is a resident of this state in the manner provided by law for the service of a summons and complaint, and upon each nonresident dissenting shareholder either by registered or certified mail or statutory overnight delivery or by publication, or in any other manner permitted by law.

(d) The jurisdiction of the court in which the proceeding is commenced under subsection (b) of this Code section is plenary and exclusive. The court may appoint one or more persons as appraisers to receive evidence and recommend decision on the question of fair value. The appraisers have the powers described in the order appointing them or in any amendment to it. Except as otherwise provided in this chapter, Chapter 11 of Title 9, known as the "Georgia Civil Practice Act," applies to any proceeding with respect to dissenters' rights under this chapter.

(e) Each dissenter made a party to the proceeding is entitled to judgment for the amount which the court finds to be the fair value of his shares, plus interest to the date of judgment. (Code 1981, § 14-2-1330, enacted by Ga. L. 1988, p. 1070, § 1; Ga. L. 1989, p. 946, § 61; Ga. L. 1993, p. 1231, § 20; Ga. L. 2000, p. 1589, § 3.)

14-2-1331. Court costs and counsel fees.

(a) The court in an appraisal proceeding commenced under Code Section 14- 2-1330 shall determine all costs of the proceeding, including the reasonable compensation and expenses of appraisers appointed by the court, but not including fees and expenses of attorneys and experts for the respective parties. The court shall assess the costs against the corporation, except that the court may assess the costs against all or some of the dissenters, in amounts the court finds equitable, to the extent the court finds the dissenters acted arbitrarily, vexatiously, or not in good faith in demanding payment under Code Section 14-2-1327.

(b) The court may also assess the fees and expenses of attorneys and experts for the respective parties, in amounts the court finds equitable:

(1) Against the corporation and in favor of any or all dissenters if the court finds the corporation did not substantially comply with the requirements of Code Sections 14-2-1320 through 14-2-1327; or

(2) Against either the corporation or a dissenter, in favor of any other party, if the court finds that the party against whom the fees and expenses are assessed acted arbitrarily, vexatiously, or not in good faith with respect to the rights provided by this article.

(c) If the court finds that the services of attorneys for any dissenter were of substantial benefit to other dissenters similarly situated, and that the fees for those services should not be assessed against the corporation, the court may award to these attorneys reasonable fees to be paid out of the amounts awarded the dissenters who were benefited. (Code 1981, § 14-2-1331, enacted by Ga. L. 1988, p. 1070, § 1.)

14-2-1332. Limitation of actions.

No action by any dissenter to enforce dissenters' rights shall be brought more than three years after the corporate action was taken, regardless of whether notice of the corporate action and of the right to dissent was given by the corporation in compliance with the provisions of Code Section 14-2-1320 and Code Section 14-2-1322. (Code 1981, § 14-2-1332, enacted by Ga. L. 1988, p. 1070, § 1.)

INFORMATION NOT REQUIRED IN PROSPECTUS

Item 20. Indemnification of Directors and Officers.

United's Articles of Incorporation, as amended, provide that no director of United shall be personally liable to United or its shareholders for breach of his or her duty of care or other duty as a director, but only to the extent permitted from time to time by the Georgia Business Corporation Code.

United's Bylaws require it to indemnify its directors, officers, employees, and agents against judgments, fines, penalties, amounts paid in settlement, and expenses, including attorney's fees, resulting from various types of legal actions or proceedings instituted by third parties if the actions of the director, officer, employee, or agent being indemnified meet the standards of conduct specified therein.

In addition, United's Bylaws require it to indemnify its directors, officers, employees, and agents for expenses actually and reasonably incurred in connection with legal actions or proceedings instituted by or in the right of United to procure a judgment in its favor, if the actions of the director, officer, employee, or agent being indemnified meet the standards of conduct set forth therein. However, United will not indemnify a director, officer, employee, or agent for such expenses if such person is adjudged liable to United, unless so ordered by the court in which the legal action or proceeding is brought.

A determination concerning whether or not the applicable standard of conduct has been met by a director, officer, employee, or agent seeking indemnification must be made by (a) a disinterested majority of the board of directors, (b) United's legal counsel, if a quorum of disinterested directors is not obtainable or if the disinterested directors so order, or (c) an affirmative vote of a majority of shares held by the shareholders. No indemnification may be made to or on behalf of a director, officer, employee or agent in connection with any other proceeding in which such person was adjudged liable on the basis that personal benefit was improperly received by him or her.

As provided under Georgia law, the liability of a director may not be eliminated or limited (a) for any appropriation, in violation of his duties, of any business opportunity of United, (b) for acts or omissions which involve intentional misconduct or a knowing violation of law, (c) for unlawful corporate distributions or (d) for any transaction from which the director received an improper benefit.

Insofar as indemnification for liabilities arising under the Securities Act of 1933 may be permitted to United's directors, officers and controlling persons pursuant to the foregoing provisions, or otherwise, United has been advised that in the opinion of the Securities and Exchange Commission, such indemnification is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act and is, therefore, unenforceable.

United's directors and officers are insured against losses arising from any claim against them as such for wrongful acts or omissions, subject to certain limitations.

UNITED COMMUNITY BANK OF WEST GEORGIA

CHANGE IN CONTROL AGREEMENT

THIS AGREEMENT made as of this ___ day of _____, 2001, by and between UNITED COMMUNITY BANK OF WEST GEORGIA, a Georgia Bank (the "Bank"), and Timothy I. Warren (the "Executive");

WHEREAS, the Executive is a key employee of the Bank and/or its wholly-owned subsidiaries, and an integral part of the management team; and

WHEREAS, the Bank wishes to assure both itself and its key employees of continuity of management and objective control of the Bank; and

WHEREAS, the Bank considers it desirable and in its best interests to enter into an agreement which provides that in the event the Executive's employment is terminated in conjunction with a change in control of the Bank, the Executive shall, subject to the terms and conditions provided for herein, receive a termination payment, which payment is not intended to exceed the compensation the Executive could have reasonably expected to receive in absence of a change in control of the Bank;

NOW, THEREFORE, the parties agree as follows:

1. BENEFITS PAYABLE UPON CHANGE IN CONTROL.

(a) The term of this Agreement shall be for a rolling, one (1) year term commencing on the date hereof, and shall be deemed automatically (without further action by either the Bank or the Executive) to extend each day for an additional day such that the remaining term of the Agreement shall continue to be one (1) year; provided, that the Bank may, by notice to the Executive, cause this Agreement to cease to extend automatically and, upon such notice, the "Term" of this Agreement shall be one (1) year following such notice.

(b) No provision of this Paragraph 1 shall be operative unless, during the Term of this Agreement, there has been a Change in Control of the Bank. Upon such a Change in Control of the Bank, all the provisions of this Paragraph 1 shall become operative immediately.

(c) If a Change in Control occurs during the term of this Agreement and the Executive's employment is terminated (i) within twelve (12) months following the date of the Change in Control, or (ii) within three (3) months prior to the date of the Change in Control as a part of such Change in Control, as a result of Involuntary Termination or Voluntary Termination, the Executive shall be entitled to a lump sum cash payment equal to two times the Executive's total compensation as shown on his federal W-2 Form (or similar form replacing such form) for the calendar year preceding the calendar year in which the Executive's employment is terminated. The payment to the Executive shall be made not later than fifteen (15) days after his termination of employment.

(d) For the purposes of this Paragraph 1, the following terms shall have the meanings set forth below:

(i) The term "Change in Control" shall mean (A) the acquisition, directly or indirectly, by any "person" as such term is used in Sections 13(d) and 14(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, (excluding any "person" who on the date hereof owns or controls 10% or more of the voting power of the Bank's Common Stock), of securities of the Bank representing an aggregate of twenty-five percent (25%) or more of the combined voting power of the Bank's then outstanding securities within any twelve (12) month period; provided, that for purposes of this definition, "acquisition" shall not include shares which are received by a person through gift, inheritance, under a will or otherwise through the laws of descent and distribution; (B) during any period of two consecutive years, individuals who at the beginning of such period constitute the Board, cease for any reason to constitute at least a majority thereof, unless the election of each new director was approved in advance by a vote of at least a majority of the directors then still in office who were directors at the beginning of the period; or, (C) the occurrence of any other event or circumstance which is not covered by (A) or (B) above which the Board determines affects control of the Bank and adopts a resolution that such event or circumstance constitutes a Change in Control for the purposes of this Agreement.

(ii) The term "Cause" shall mean and be limited to any act that constitutes, on the part of the Executive, fraud, dishonesty, a felony or gross malfeasance of duty and that directly results in material injury to the Bank.

(iii) The term "Disability" shall mean the Executive's inability as a result of physical or mental incapacity to substantially perform his duties for the Bank on a full-time basis for a period of six (6) months.

(iv) The term "Involuntary Termination" shall mean termination of employment that is involuntary on the part of the Executive and that occurs for reasons other than for Cause, Disability, voluntary retirement (including early retirement) within the meaning of the Bank's retirement plan, or death.

(v) The term "Voluntary Termination" shall mean termination of employment that is voluntary on the part of the Executive, and, in the judgment of the Executive, is due to (A) a reduction of the Executive's responsibilities resulting solely from the assignment to the Executive of any duties inconsistent with his positions, duties or responsibilities as in effect immediately prior to the Change in Control; (B) a reduction in the Executive's compensation (other than a reduction resulting from performance related bonuses, so long as such bonuses are paid under plans reasonably designed to avoid any such reduction except as the result of relatively poor performance results) or the failure to provide substantially equivalent benefits, or (C) a forced relocation more than 15 miles from Executive's principal assigned location prior to such change in control. A termination shall not be considered voluntary within the meaning of this Agreement if such termination is a result of Cause, Disability, voluntary retirement (including early retirement) within the meaning of the Bank's retirement plan, or death of the Executive.

2. LIMITATION OF BENEFITS.

(a) Notwithstanding anything in this Agreement to the contrary, if any of the compensation or benefits payable, or to be provided, to the Executive by the Bank under this Agreement are treated as Excess Severance Payments (whether alone or in conjunction with payments or benefits outside of this Agreement), the compensation and benefits provided under this Agreement shall be modified or reduced in the manner provided in Paragraph (b) below to the extent necessary so that the compensation and benefits payable or to be provided to Executive under this Agreement that are treated as Severance Payments, as well as any compensation or benefits provided outside of this Agreement that are so treated, shall not cause the Bank to have paid an Excess Severance Payment. In computing such amount, the parties shall take into account all provisions of Code Section 280G, and the regulations thereunder, including making appropriate adjustments to such calculation for amounts established to be Reasonable Compensation.

(b) In the event that the amount of any Severance Payments which would be payable to or for the benefit of the Executive under this Agreement must be modified or reduced to comply with this Paragraph, the Executive shall direct which Severance Payments are to be modified or reduced; provided, however, that no increase in the amount of any payment shall be made without the consent of the Bank.

(c) This Paragraph shall be interpreted so as to avoid the imposition of excise taxes on the Executive under Section 4999 of the Code or the disallowance of a deduction to the Bank pursuant to Section 280G(a) of Code with respect to amounts payable under this Agreement. In connection with any Internal Revenue Service examination, audit or other inquiry, the Bank and Executive agree to take action to provide, and to cooperate in providing, evidence to the Internal Revenue Service (and, if applicable, the state revenue department) that the compensation and benefits provided under this Agreement do not result in the payment of Excess Severance Payments.

(d) In addition to the limits otherwise provided in this Article, to the extent permitted by law the Executive may in his sole discretion elect to reduce (or change the timing of) any payments he may be eligible to receive under this Agreement to prevent the imposition of excise taxes on the Executive under Section 4999 of the Code or otherwise reduce or delay liability for taxes owed under the Code.

(e) For the purposes of this Paragraph 2, the following terms shall have the meanings set forth below:

(i) The term "Excess Severance Payment" shall have the same meaning as the term "excess parachute payment" defined in Section 280G(b)(1) of the Code.

(ii) The term "Severance Payment" shall have the same meaning as the term "parachute payment" defined in Section 280G(b)(2) of the Code.

(iii) The term "Reasonable Compensation" shall have the same meaning as provided in Section 280G(b)(4) of the Code.

3. MISCELLANEOUS.

(a) This Agreement shall be binding upon, and inure to the benefit of, the Executive and his executors, representatives and assigns, and the Bank and its successors and assigns.

(b) This Agreement shall be governed by, and construed and enforced in accordance with, the laws of the State of Georgia.

(c) This Agreement shall not be construed as giving to the Executive the right to be retained in the employ of the Bank or any of its affiliates.

(d) This Agreement may only be amended by an instrument in writing executed by both of the parties.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the undersigned have executed this Agreement as of the date first above written.
