Part II, Line 15

A shareholder's tax basis in one (1) share of UCBI common stock received in exchange for Reliant capital stock should equal the shareholder's basis in one (1) share of Reliant capital stock divided by 0.9842 (not counting the basis of any shares allocated to the receipt of fractional UCBI shares).

Reliant shareholders who received cash instead of fractional shares of UCBI common stock will be treated as having received the fractional shares in the merger and then as having exchanged the fractional shares for cash. These holders will generally recognize gain or loss equal to the difference between the tax basis allocated to the fractional shares and the amount of cash received.

Part II, Line 16

The fair market value of UCBI common stock at the effective time of the merger was $35.94 per share, based on the closing price on December 31, 2021.

The basis of UCBI shares received, once computed, must be allocated to the individual UCBI shares received in accordance with Treasury Regulation §1.358-2(a). See also Proposed Treasury Regulation §1.358-2(b). Since fewer shares of UCBI common stock were received than shares of Reliant capital stock surrendered, the basis of the Reliant shares surrendered must be allocated to the shares of UCBI stock received in a manner that reflects, to the greatest extent possible, that a share of UCBI stock received is received in respect of Reliant shares of stock that were acquired on the same date and at the same price. To the extent it is not possible to allocate basis in this manner, the basis of the Reliant shares surrendered must be allocated to the shares of UCBI stock received in a manner that minimizes the disparity in the holding periods of the surrendered shares whose basis is allocated to any particular UCBI share received. This could result in a single share of UCBI stock having a split basis and a split holding period. See Example (14) of Treasury Regulation §1.358-2(c) for an illustration of this principle.

Part II, Line 18

No loss may be recognized by a Reliant shareholder receiving UCBI common stock, except that any loss on the receipt of cash in lieu of fractional shares of UCBI stock may be recognized. The deductibility of capital losses is subject to limitation.

Reliant shareholders who receive only UCBI stock will generally not recognize gain or loss.
